Supporting information

Please provide any additional information which you consider relevant to your application. It would be particularly helpful if you could indicate why you have applied for this position and those aspects of your education, training, experience, personal skills and attitudes which equip you for this post. You may use additional sheets if required.

References

- Please provide details of your two most recent employers (Line Manager or HR Department) who we will approach for references. If you are applying for a role working with children or young people and your last two roles were not in this field, please also supply details of a referee who can comment on this aspect of your experience.
- If you have been overseas in the last 5 years for 3 months or more we will conduct an international check (criminal records check) for the countries you have visited (however, this will not be needed if you are able to provide a 'certificate of good conduct'). If you worked during your time overseas, please also provide details of the overseas employer to allow us to obtain a reference).
- If you are in or have just completed full-time education, please provide details of a referee from your school/college/university.
- If you have been self-employed, please provide details of your company name, website and two clients who we can approach for a reference in the supporting information box on page 3.

Criminal record

Study Group applies for an Enhanced Disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service, including a Children's Barred List check, for all positions at the Study Group which amount to regulated activity. It is unlawful for Study Group to employ anyone who is barred from working with children. It is a criminal offence for any person who is barred from working with children to attempt to apply for a position at Study Group. If you are successful in your application you will be required to complete a DBS Disclosure Application Form. Employment with Study Group is conditional upon us being satisfied with the result of the Enhanced DBS Disclosure. Any information disclosed will be handled in accordance with any guidance and / or code of practice published by the DBS.

Study Group is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore all convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings (including those which would normally be considered "spent" under the Act) must be declared. You are not required to disclose a caution or conviction for an offence committed in the United Kingdom if it has been filtered in accordance with the DBS filtering rules (see Appendix 1 to this form). If you have a criminal record this will not automatically debar you from employment. Instead, each case will be assessed fairly by reference to Study Group's objective assessment procedure set out in Study Group's recruitment, selection and disclosure policy and procedure.

It is a condition of your application that you answer the questions below. Before doing so please read Appendix 1.

Have you been cautioned, subject to a court order, bound over, received a reprimand or warning or been found guilty of committing any criminal offence whether in the United Kingdom or in another country? You are not required to disclose a caution or conviction for an offence committed in the United Kingdom which is subject to the Disclosure and Barring Service filtering rules (see Appendix 1). Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> (please tick)
Is there any relevant court action pending against you? Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> (please tick)

If answering YES to any of the above, please provide details on a separate sheet and send this in a sealed envelope marked "CONFIDENTIAL" with your application form.

Filtering rules

You are not required to disclose information about spent criminal convictions for offences committed in the United Kingdom if you were over 18 years of age at the time of the offence and:

- 11 years have elapsed since the date of conviction;
- it is your only offence;
- it did not result in a custodial sentence; and
- it does not appear on the list of "specified offences".

You are not required to disclose information about a spent caution in relation to an offence committed in the United Kingdom if you were over 18 years of age at the time of the offence and six years has elapsed since the date it was issued, and provided it does not appear on the list of "specified offences".

You are not required to disclose information about a spent criminal conviction if you were under 18 years of age at the time of the offence and:

- five and a half years have elapsed since the date of conviction;
- it is your only offence;
- it did not result in a custodial sentence; and
- it does not appear on the list of "specified offences".

You are not required to disclose information about a spent caution if you were under 18 years of age at the time of the offence and two years has elapsed since the date it was issued, and provided it does not appear on the list of "specified offences".

The list of "specified offences" that will always be disclosed can be found at:
